Dear Sir:

Enclosed is a refund check for $60.40 for Invoice # 3503, MBS "[illegible]". I have searched my inventory and can not find the proof 1881 dime and proof 1883 dime. Where they disappeared I do not know. I did find a proof 1881 and a 1883 nickel 3 cent pieces, which are the same price. This may be the basis of my error. Sorry about the mix-up; and, your inconvience.

Would you be interested in the proof ~~3~~ 3¢ pieces?

Very truly yours,

Mr. R. Tettenhorst

My dear Sir:

Thanks so very much for your coin order and bank draft of November 16 and it is sincerely regretted that with exception of the 1892 T1, the other proof quarters you asked for were previously sold.

I am holding your draft uncashed until I hear from you regarding the 1892 T1 which I am enclosing herewith on approval. While the quarter was listed choice proof, I find upon inspection prior to shipment which is my policy, the coin bears a couple minute nicks in cheek which I had not previously noted. If it will serve your purpose, the price is hereby reduced to $200.00. The item is still most desirable because of it's rarity, as was stated by Sam Kabealo, San Bernardino, California from whom it was purchased some fifteen or so years ago. In fact Mr. Kabealo, an acknowledged expert on proofs, suggested that he be informed and have opportunity to repurchase the piece in the event it was ever sold. My price was a stab in the dark, so to speak, and the coin could possibly be worth much more than the advertised price.

ok written 11-27-70

I can recommend the following remaining beautiful Barber quarters which I am holding for our Rantoul Coin Club Show on December 6: 1893 Fr. Hd.(light brush at eye-brow) 110.00; 1894 Ch Fr. 100.00; 1895 FR Hd 95.00; 1897 100.00; 1898 100.00; 1899 100.00; 1901 85.00; 1906 100.00; 1907 Fr Hd 100.00; 1908 1911 Fr Hd 110.00; 1913 Fr Hd 110.00; 1911 Fr Hd 150.00; 1914 Fr Hd 240.00; and 1915 250.00. All the preceding can be classified Gem or Ch. and if desired, can arrange to send you approval and allow 10% discount for quantity order.

It will be my sincere pleasure to help in any way I may be permitted.

Very truly yours,

Doug Liss

Dear Mr. Zettenmayer:

Thanks ever for your note received today regarding the 1890 CC proof 25¢ I sent you on 11/21. I'm pleased that it suited your need and that I could make the suggested package deal including the 1915 proof. However, as I think I mentioned in my former letter, all the other dates you asked for were sold out. The very best I can do as concerns the 1915 which is real nice proof, is 15% off or net $217.50. May I suggest immediate reply if the deal interests you for I am informed any of the former proofs remaining on Sunday for the Rantoul Coin Show will be wanted by another dealer.

I am enclosing herewith refund check in amount of $345.00 representing difference due you from Cashier's Check sent me on November 18.

Sincerely yours,

Doug Sik
